

Name: _____

PRACTICE EXERCISE 1: Find the comma errors in the following sentences; then correct the errors by adding or deleting commas. Any sentence will have only one type of error. There are no correct sentences.

1. Frank planned to cheat on his exam but he forgot to make cheat notes.
2. My father on the other hand is better at golfing than I am.
3. The members, who all have perfect attendance, should meet at noon tomorrow.
4. I think Ben that you should probably try a little harder next time.
5. I think that his books are complex controversial and interesting.
6. My ordeal actually began on Monday April 17 1989 when I turned 19.
7. After we have gathered all our materials we intend to begin planning our project.
8. I really have to hurry now or I will be late for class.
9. The Martins will be moving to 437 Linton Road Norton Shores Michigan 49441.
10. My Aunt Phyllis the queen of polyester will never be a fashionable dresser.

PRACTICE EXERCISE 2: Write the following sentences using commas correctly.

1. Write a sentence with a series telling me about your three favorite foods.
2. Write a sentence that includes your birth date.
3. Write a sentence about your parents using a conjunction to join two sentences.
4. Write a sentence about computers that uses an introductory word, phrase or clause.
5. Write a question with an appositive about your favorite musician or musical group.