

PART 2 - POINTS OF EMPHASIS
(pages 83-122)

- The point in the book burning
- How the Fuhrer's birthday answered Liesel's questions about her mom (110-111, 115)
- Rosa's fear in not finding the Nazi flag (102)
- When it states that Hans juniors "silver in his eyes...had been Fuhrered." (103).
- The differences between Hans and his son (104-05)
- Hans reasoning for smacking Liesel and the meaning behind it (116-17)
- The description of the person who saw Liesel take the book (122).

PART 2 - POINTS OF EMPHASIS
(pages 83-122)

- The point in the book burning
- How the Fuhrer's birthday answered Liesel's questions about her mom (110-111, 115)
- Rosa's fear in not finding the Nazi flag (102)
- When it states that Hans juniors "silver in his eyes...had been Fuhrered." (103).
- The differences between Hans and his son (104-05)
- Hans reasoning for smacking Liesel and the meaning behind it (116-17)
- The description of the person who saw Liesel take the book (122).

PART 2 - POINTS OF EMPHASIS
(pages 83-122)

- The point in the book burning
- How the Fuhrer's birthday answered Liesel's questions about her mom (110-111, 115)
- Rosa's fear in not finding the Nazi flag (102)
- When it states that Hans juniors "silver in his eyes...had been Fuhrered." (103).
- The differences between Hans and his son (104-05)
- Hans reasoning for smacking Liesel and the meaning behind it (116-17)
- The description of the person who saw Liesel take the book (122).

PART 2 - POINTS OF EMPHASIS
(pages 83-122)

- The point in the book burning
- How the Fuhrer's birthday answered Liesel's questions about her mom (110-111, 115)
- Rosa's fear in not finding the Nazi flag (102)
- When it states that Hans juniors "silver in his eyes...had been Fuhrered." (103).
- The differences between Hans and his son (104-05)
- Hans reasoning for smacking Liesel and the meaning behind it (116-17)
- The description of the person who saw Liesel take the book (122).