

PART 3 – POINTS OF EMPHASIS
(pages 125-170)

- Understand each of the following characters and their roles: Ilsa Hermann, Arthur Berg, and Otto Sturm
- Liesel’s excitement for books
- Hans’ reasoning for buying Hitler’s book
- Why the hidden Jewish person might know Hans
- The reason Max is going to 33 Himmel and his back and forth emotion
- What Rudy and Liesel did during the summer to keep them busy (specific thefts-161-170, 150-153)
- Why Ilsa Hermann is considered “damaged”
- What Max’s journey might bring him

PART 3 – POINTS OF EMPHASIS
(pages 125-170)

- Understand each of the following characters and their roles: Ilsa Hermann, Arthur Berg, and Otto Sturm
- Liesel’s excitement for books
- Hans’ reasoning for buying Hitler’s book
- Why the hidden Jewish person might know Hans
- The reason Max is going to 33 Himmel and his back and forth emotion
- What Rudy and Liesel did during the summer to keep them busy (specific thefts-161-170, 150-153)
- Why Ilsa Hermann is considered “damaged”
- What Max’s journey might bring him

PART 3 – POINTS OF EMPHASIS
(pages 125-170)

- Understand each of the following characters and their roles: Ilsa Hermann, Arthur Berg, and Otto Sturm
- Liesel’s excitement for books
- Hans’ reasoning for buying Hitler’s book
- Why the hidden Jewish person might know Hans
- The reason Max is going to 33 Himmel and his back and forth emotion
- What Rudy and Liesel did during the summer to keep them busy (specific thefts-161-170, 150-153)
- Why Ilsa Hermann is considered “damaged”
- What Max’s journey might bring him

PART 3 – POINTS OF EMPHASIS
(pages 125-170)

- Understand each of the following characters and their roles: Ilsa Hermann, Arthur Berg, and Otto Sturm
- Liesel’s excitement for books
- Hans’ reasoning for buying Hitler’s book
- Why the hidden Jewish person might know Hans
- The reason Max is going to 33 Himmel and his back and forth emotion
- What Rudy and Liesel did during the summer to keep them busy (specific thefts-161-170, 150-153)
- Why Ilsa Hermann is considered “damaged”
- What Max’s journey might bring him